

Withdrawal form - Financial Hardship

Please complete the form using CAPITAL letters. Mark X in the boxes where applicable. The form must be completed in full.

Use this form to:

- ▶ apply for the early release of your superannuation benefits under financial hardship.

Please consider:

- Any costs, as well as benefits you may be losing, such as insurance, and
- Eligibility for financial hardship. To assist you, we have provided a Financial hardship checklist, refer to Section 9.

To ensure any withdrawal from the fund can be completed in a timely manner, please ensure that all required documentation is attached to this form.

1. Important information

The Superannuation Industry Supervision Act (SIS) defines prescribed criteria for the release of funds prior to retirement for severe financial hardship. The Trustee of the fund must be satisfied based on the written evidence that the person:

- is unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses,
- has received Commonwealth income support payments for a continuous period of 26 weeks, and
- was in receipt of payments of that kind on the date of the written evidence,

OR the person

- has reached his or her preservation age plus 39 weeks and has been receiving Commonwealth income support payments for a cumulative period of 39 weeks after reaching preservation age, and
- was not gainfully employed on a full time, or part time basis on the date of the application for cashing his or her preserved benefits, or restricted non preserved benefits in the superannuation fund.

Notes

- The written evidence of Commonwealth income support must be dated less than 21 days before the date the person's application to the Trustee for the cashing of the preserved benefits or restricted non-preserved benefits.
- Only one payment up to the value of $10,000 gross can be made in any 12 month period.
- Wish to make a compassionate claim? These are dealt with by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), and not the superannuation fund. Contact the ATO directly by visiting ato.gov.au, and through your MyGov account.

9. Financial hardship checklist

To be eligible to claim severe financial hardship and be entitled for the early release of certain superannuation benefits you must prove that you are unable to meet reasonable and immediate family expenses.

The Trustee requires the following to determine your eligibility:

- Completion of the financial hardship withdrawal form including income and expenditure information, and
- CERTIFIED copies of the following:
 - A valid Q230 letter (less than 21 days old) from Centrelink or the Department of Veteran Affairs (DVA) confirming your Customer Registration Number (CRN) and that you have been receiving income support for 26 consecutive weeks and are still receiving payments,
 - A valid Q251 letter (less than 21 days old) from the Department of Health Services (DHS) or the DVA confirming your CRN and that you have been receiving income support for 39 consecutive weeks after reaching preservation age and are still receiving payments, and
 - Evidence of:
 - Centrelink income statement,
 - member bank statement showing BSB, account number and account name, together with DHS/DVA fortnightly payment,
 - payment request including:
 - bill receipts (only recently dated will be considered),
 - overdue bills, board, rent,
 - demand notices or letters of default, or
 - statutory declaration on debt to family/friends, and
 - proof of identity – also refer to the Identification requirements factsheet.

Important information

- Only one lump-sum payment for financial hardship can be made in any 12 month period. The minimum amount that can be paid is $1,000 (unless your account balance is less than this amount) and the maximum amount payable is $10,000 gross.
- If you have changed your name and not advised the superannuation fund previously, you will also need to provide a CERTIFIED copy of your marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate.

11. Declaration and signature

- I am unable to meet my reasonable and immediate family living expenses and I do not have any assets (apart from my home) which could (reasonably and realistically speaking) be used or sold to cover this gap,
- The amount that I am requesting to be released is necessary to meet my reasonable and immediate family expenses,
- I am aware of and do not require any information on the impact of this payment on my superannuation benefits,
- I am aware of any fees and charges that may apply,
- I declare I am an Australian or permanent resident of Australia,
- I declare that I have read this form completely and the information I have entered is true and correct, and I authorise the fund to process my benefit request in accordance with my instructions,
- I request payment to be made in the manner indicated on this form and accompanying material, and I understand that this withdrawal may cause my insurance cover (if any) to lapse, unless I establish an alternative payment method,
- I understand tax may be deducted from the withdrawal, and I have read and understood the information regarding TFNs in Section 5 of this form,
- I understand that if applicable, it is my responsibility to notify Centrelink of any payments I receive,

I understand that the personal information that I have provided on this form will be used for the purpose of administering my account. And I consent to my personal information being used in accordance with OneVue Wealth Services Privacy Policy (available for viewing at onesuper.com),

- I understand that the fund may email me to request and provide information on my account and about the fund,
- I have read and understood the information provided in Section 9 Financial hardship checklist and Important information together with the Identification requirements factsheet,
- I discharge the fund from all further liability in respect of the benefits paid, and
- I consent to the fund contacting DHS/DVA if needed to update my Q230 or Q251 letters (if as a result of ongoing enquiries my Q230 or Q251 letters become more than 21 days old).
